Fun, Roast Duck and Dancing at Our Elks Czech Night

EXALTED RULER'S MESSAGE

By Larry Pickering

I recently returned from the Elks National Convention in New Orleans Louisiana. This was the One Hundred and Thirtieth session of the Grand Lodge, and the largest. There were 3,837 registered delegates and a total of 18,626 members and their families.

We arrived on Sunday July 10, for the opening ceremonies and principal address given by GER George Klein.

Attending the business sessions from 9-12 gave you time to meet the exalted Rulers from other Lodges. As you probably know New Orleans can give you a most enjoyable time in the evenings.

Nebraska came home with some awards and I was honored to accept the second place plaque for Jack Jensen's Youth Activities Brochure, Lincoln is in the group of 2000 or more members. Phoenix Lodge, Phoenix Arizona placed first.

Homer Huhn Jr. was installed as the Grand Exalted Ruler for 1977-1978, and presented his goals for his coming year.

Gay Blanc was installed as District Deputy to the Grand Exalted Ruler for Nebraska East. This is quite an honor and I know Gay will do a very fine job.

Kay and I had an excellent time in New Orleans and a National Convention is something we will always remember.

Our Lodge's Monte Carlo Nite June 29 was very successful with the people that attended. There were some very fine prizes auctioned off during the evening, donated by some of our members.

Czek Nite July 15 had to be one of our better attended events that we have had all summer, with good food and dancing to the music of Ernie Kucera. A good time was had by all!

Be sure and check the Elk-O-Gram or Flyers for our coming Events!

Fraternally,

Exalted Ruler

Patronize Or Otherwise

Please remit or please demit.
 Brother, contemplate a bit.
 Think of dancing under the stars—
 On a parking lot, between the cars;
 Of beers and cheers, of Pat Glenn's Band—
 An open fire to warm our hands.
 Or dream of "White Christmas," a blizzard day,
 A frozen daquari at our sidewalk cafe.
 Imagine our cozy dining room scene:
 Enjoying live music, the wine and cusine.
 We are only as great as we choose to believe;
 Yet, without your support our hopes are naive.
 Come, save what is left of our Camelot.
 Bring your family, your friends, your most positvie thought!
