ELKS TENNIS TOURNAMENT

EXALTED RULER'S MESSAGE

By Don Andersen

August is now past history and we prepare for a busy fall schedule at Lincoln Lodge #80.

Brother Vic Meisinger has again agreed to be chairman of our "Big Red" football Saturdays. Food and drink will be available on the third floor. The second floor is available to us if it is needed.

We have obtained the University of Nebraska 1978 Football highlight film which will be shown on the third floor on September 5th at 7:30 p.m. This is Lodge night. Plan to attend early for our $2.50 dinner and stay for the Lodge meeting at 8:00 p.m.

Nearly 200 young people registered for the annual Elks Tennis Tournament at Woods Park on August 6th. My thanks to Don Betts, chairman of this event. The winners and runners-up will receive trophies at a later Lodge meeting.

Midget football registration is Friday, August 17th at Northeast High School at 6:00 p.m. Jack Jensen and Dick Schneider have again accepted this responsibility and with their leadership, it should be another successful year.

My thanks to Bill Woltemade and Manager, Santo Arrigo for the excellent planning of Elks Day at the Races. Nearly 100 brothers and their wives enjoyed the races in choice seating and air conditioned comfort. Race #7 was the "Elks Feature Race" and an Elks Lodge #80 blanket was presented to the winner.

HAWAIIAN ADVENTURE TOUR

JANUARY 3-11, 1980

An Aloha Welcome From
Mr. Don Andersen, Exalted Ruler

Aloha Friends:

I hope you can join us on this great trip to Hawaii next January. We know that when the snow is blowing outside your door, you'll feel the urge to break away—so we suggest you make reservations early.

We are looking forward to the pleasure of traveling with the Brethren from the Lodge in Lincoln. We think this is an outstanding trip at a very low price. We've tried to make it as free and easy as possible to give you loads of opportunity to see all the high spots, plus "do your thing."

*So for now, I urge you to make your reservations as far ahead as possible to avoid disappointment.
See you on board!*

AN OPEN LETTER TO HASTINGS LODGE B.P.O. ELKS #159

We golfers from Lincoln Lodge #80, herewith express our sincere appreciation and thank you for a super weekend of golf and hosting of the 6th annual Nebraska Elks State Golf Tournament.

To your tournament directors, to all of your brothers who helped marshal the course, to all the ladies who brought in the many dishes of food, to all the ladies who served the hamburgers and breakfasts, and to all the employees of your Elks Club who worked to help make this event the success that it was----

Lincoln Elks golfers who participated in this tourney surely do
THANK YOU for an excellent job well done.

KEARNEY LODGE #984 PLACES 2ND IN NATION

The Kearney Ritual Team, representing the State of Nebraska, for the third consecutive year, competed at the 115th National Elks Convention in Dallas.

Kearney's outstanding performance netted them second place in the Western Division, which qualified them for the finals. Their distinct performance in the finals placed them second in the nation of the 50 states, bettered only by first place winners, Greely, Colorado Lodge #809.

We extend our hearty congratulations to both of these great teams for winning this high honor.

100 CHAIRS

At our Lodge meeting on September 5, 1979, 100 chairs will be set up signifying our goal for new members and reinstatements between now and March 31, 1980.

Each time a brother proposes a new member or reinstates a member, that new person's name will be placed on the chair with the name of his proposer. Ninety-seven of these chairs will have NOTHING on them as of September 5, 1979, our first Lodge meeting in September. Three have been filled.

During the second meeting in March, 1980, these chairs will be occupied by the person whose name appears thereon.

HELP US FILL THE CHAIRS. PROPOSE A NEW MEMBER OR ASK ONE TO REINSTATE.
"WE LIKE YOU, WE'LL LIKE YOUR FRIEND."
