WARNING TO OMAHA

Bob Clinkenbeard, Center - Jack and Mrs. Jensen

On Saturday, August 14th a few score people gathered in the Lodge room to confirm the rumor that PER Jack Jensen was being transferred to the Omaha office of the Cornhusker Motor Club. When it was confirmed, Chairman Ron Dodd asked for volunteers to say something nice about Jack before he left. Following a half hour of silence, Ron pleaded for someone to say something neutral, and when that failed, he asked that somebody say something. Then the rush began. PER Bob Clinkenbeard handcuffed Jack to a chair on the stage, and then gave us his opinion of the guest of honor. In rapid succession PER Charles Kruse, PER John Zimmer, PER Ralph Giebelhaus, Dale Hansen, Esquire Randy Steinmeyer, R. L. Clark, and ER Ron Colin came forward and tried in vain to say something nice about the victim.

After an hour or so of searching for something nice to say about PER Jensen, Ron Dodd admitted defeat; and after suggesting that this warning to Omaha be published, called for reconvening the meeting in the more pleasant surroundings of the dining room. Omaha - you have been warned! 14601

EXALTED RULER'S MESSAGE

"By Ron Colin"

LINCOLN ELKS LODGE NO. 80
1700 South 70th Street
Lincoln, Nebraska 68506

"HOME LODGE" OF
PAST GRAND EXALTED RULER
GEORGE B. KLEIN

BROTHERS OF '80':

The month of August found our Lodge very busy. Highlighting some of these events, I mention our Elk's City Wide Tennis Tournament, held this year at Woods Park. Brother Randy Steinmeyer deserves a big thank you for carrying out this event. The Awards Program was held August 6th, at the park.

A Farewell to PER Jack Jensen was held Saturday, August 12th at the Club. Jack has accepted a position with his firm in Omaha.

BEST OF SUCCESS — JACK

On August 18th Elkdom corralled at the Fair Grounds for an afternoon of horse racing. Brother Jim McKinney performed masterfully in setting up the afternoon's activities. Thanks Jim, even though the horses did most of the hard work. During the evening, we returned to the Club for entertainment and dining.

Cries of "here comes the bunny" and "there went our money" were heard loud and clear August 28th when 44 Elks bussed to the Dog Races. Seriously, a good time was had by all and the group hopes we can make this an annual event and have two buses go next year.

Our Swimming Team finished the season in stylish fashion and held their awards program at the pool. Many thanks to Monroe and Elaine Usher and coaches Jack Perry and Betsy Wilson for making this season the success it was.

September brings the "RED" out in all of us and the Club will again this year provide bus service to the games. An article in this issue of the ELK-O-GRAM lists the details.

Elks Midget Football is underway and as soon as schedules are available Chairman Randy Steinmeyer will post one at the Club. Equipment was checked out to the team members August 17th.

Monday, August 16th an article appeared in the newspaper stating that Lincoln Elks Lodge No. 80 won the Nebraska Coed Softball Championship and have qualified for the National Tournament which will be held in Topeka, Kansas. CONGRATULATIONS to Chairman Steve Wirth and the Team.

The Nebraska Elk's Association State President, Ken Green, held the State's Fall Conference at our Lodge August 21-22. PER Bob Clinkenbeard served as Chairman of this event and all out-state Elks were shown some real No. 80 hospitality. The meetings and ritual clinic held during the weekend proved very informative and all state Elks in attendance left Lincoln richer in knowledge and spirit.

Barb and I are looking forward to the No. 80 Fall Season. Many events are planned and we look forward to sharing them with you at the Club.

Fraternally and sincerely,

Ron Colin

ACCENTUATE THE POSITIVE

Many years ago the Frenchman called Emile Coué built an international reputation with the sentence, "Every day, in every way, I am getting better and better!" Then came Norman Vincent Peale with his "Power of Positive Thinking" and demonstrated to millions of people the validity of his idea. Can we use this to our advantage in Lincoln Lodge No. 80?

We have a number of Brothers who make a point of mentioning our Lodge every day to Elks and non-Elks alike, and they ALWAYS emphasize good points of the Lodge and its services, and the advantages of being an Elk. Wouldn't it be wonderful if we all served as such ambassadors of good will? Come to the Lodge so that you, too, can pass along the good word — or if you can't get out to the Lodge, pass along the positive ideas found in the Elk-O-Gram!

IS YOUR NUMBER UP?

As usual, four numbers of members were published in last month's Elk-O-Gram, but none of them called to claim their prizes. The four disappointed members are: Frank Johnson, Dave Eppert, Bob Corcoran and Rodney Soukup.

If your number appears in this, or any future issue, phone Dick Childs 488-0929 to find out what you have won!

DOES DOINGS

To the Brothers of Elks Lodge No. 80 —

You are cordially invited to attend the 32nd Annual Nebraska East District Meeting of the Benevolent, Patriotic Order of Does on Friday, October 1st. Lincoln Drove No. 4 is the Hostess Drove this year and would welcome a large delegation of Elks from Lincoln Lodge No. 80. This function is free of charge and is open to the public. Spouses and guests who are not Does are welcome as well.

Due to the fact that attendance will be too large for the Elks Club to accommodate our functions, the convention activities will all be held at the Lincoln Hilton Hotel Grand Ballroom. Opening ceremonies will begin promptly at 7:30 p.m.

A banquet honoring our Supreme President Peggy Long will be held on Saturday, October 2nd, in the Grand Ballroom of the Hilton Hotel beginning at 7:30 p.m. You are also welcome to attend at a ticket price of $12.50 per person. Please let me know by September 24th if you are interested in banquet tickets.

No reply is necessary for the Friday evening ceremonies unless you would require reserved seating or special introduction.

On behalf of the B.P.O. Does, Lincoln Drove No. 4, I wish to thank the Brothers of Elks Lodge No. 80 for your continued support of our many activities. Looking forward to seeing many of you at our convention. 14634
