Grand Exalted Ruler, 2014-2015
John D. Amen
Message from the GER
Grand Lodge Newsletter,
July 2015

Our Thanks and Gratitude for a Wonderful Journey

What a journey this past year, and we are so elated at the progress you have made on our membership issues. It is the cherry on top of the cupcake. For the first time since the inception of CLMS reporting, our decline nationally was finally under 2 percent. This is encouraging news. In fact, we decreased our shrinkage from 2.8 percent at the end of the 2014 Lodge year to 1.6 percent at March 31, 2015. That is almost half! We need to keep membership concerns at the forefront because it is our Members who enable our community service, which elevates the human condition of our communities. Let's keep the "full court press" on again this year.

Concentrate on the three prongs of membership: (1) initiations; (2) delinquency reduction; and, (3) reinstatements. Last year we had some 51,000 initiations, but during our high point of membership in the late 1970s we were initiating 75,000 new Members per year. We need to close that gap.

As to delinquency, we must not drop from our rolls our delinquent Members until we have had a face-to-face conversation about their situation whenever possible. Lodge Secretaries, please do not drop delinquents before you have to. There may be "Sickness and Distress" involved in the delinquency that is worthy of consideration by the Lodge Standing Relief Committee.

As to reinstatements, those former Members joined us for a reason and they already know of our good works – use that to your advantage and be certain that your By-laws provide for a 60-day period when reinstatement fees are reduced to $1. A Lodge that works hard during the year on all three phases will be sure to end in the PLUS column for the year.

Marcia and I are so honored to have served as Grand Exalted Ruler and First Lady. We have done our best to present you, the membership, with the high standards of leadership that you deserve. This year has been a most wonderful journey that we have thoroughly enjoyed. The gracious welcomes we have received from all quarters have been magnificent. Our thanks and gratitude do not seem to be enough. Our thoughts and good wishes will be with all of you, always.

Exalted Ruler
Lodge No. 80
2015-2016

Gerry R. Miles

Wow this month is flying by as the Ritual team readies itself for national competition. One more week of practices and then we perform! We feel we will be ready to represent the great state of Nebraska and your Lincoln Lodge #80. There is great competition at nationals and we will do our best.

This Elk-o-gram is a 2 month edition, so it will contain a lot of information. Please hold on to it to reference the dinners and goings on of your lodge. The officers put on a Father's Day breakfast in which we thank each and every one that attended. Great food was cooked by Carrie and all of the Ritual team, and as usual Larry and Larry worked in the background for a few days ahead of time (I think Mary also, and probably more that I am unaware of) to prepare for the Breakfast.

I encourage you to attend the dinners if you have the chance, they are a lot of fun and really great meals (and you get to see what shenanigans Larry and Larry have come up with!). The dinners help keep the lodge paying its bills, so keep them in the back of your mind on those nights.

I would like all Elks to remember why they originally joined the lodge, and ask yourselves if any of your friends would benefit from belonging to this great organization. I received an e-mail the other day from a lady asking me to send her dad (who is a member of the Bloomington Lodge) some trinkets (lodge pins and such) as he is in bad health and his greatest enjoyment is receiving these from other lodges. This is one of the essences of the Elks! We remember and revere the elderly, and help them when we can among many other things we do for each other and the community.

DOES News

As a reminder, we have a beautiful one of kind queen size quilt up for raffle! Prairie Star "basket" is the pattern. Red on the face with maroon back. Check out the picture elsewhere in the Elk O Gram!! The tickets are 5 dollars per, or 5 for 20 dollars. To purchase your ticket, call Marjorie, 402-423-5939. The raffle will be held at next year's Grand Lodge meeting.

Three us will be traveling down to Albuquerque, NM for this year's Grand Lodge meeting. We will be giving out 500 information bags and presenting our 2016 Grand Lodge activity plans. We will also be selling our t-shirts there. If you have not bought one yet, please call Kelli at 402-467-5595.

Knight's Tales

...and now for the Quickies...

Greetings All!

The next time you hear from me, the ritual team will have been to the National Convention. We have been practicing hard to defend our title. We are all very proud to represent our lodge and our great state. We are each committed to doing our best. A BIG Thank You to all of you for your support. Without all of you this would not be possible.

I truly believe that our strong support of ritual has made us a better lodge. I know it has made me a better person and Elk. Listen closely to what is said and it will change you, too.

See you at the lodge!

-Mary Brooks, Leading Knight

Wow, it is hard to believe that summer is already upon us. I don't know where June went, but I do remember it was a busy month. Our Ritual team was busy with practices for the up coming competition in Indianapolis at the National Convention. We will be doing our best to defend our National Championship from last year. Thanks to all that have supported our team with your kind words of encouragement, and attending our fundraisers. You have no idea what this means for us as a team, and how much it helps to defray our costs in competing. We will do our BEST to make you all PROUD !!!!!

We have several dinners for the lodge coming up in both July and August. These are advertised in this edition of the Elk-O-Gram. Please plan on attending them as the money raised from the dinners is the way we fund keeping our lodge open.

You have noticed, I'm sure, that this is a two month Elk-O-Gram. We decided to try this as a way of cutting some costs as well as giving our Elk-O-Gram staff some much needed rest. They put in many volunteer hours to get the newsletter out every month and deserve a break. Thank Maureen, Kevin and Randy when you see them around the lodge for all their dedication and hard work on the newsletter.

I hope for you all to have a great and fun two months and please be safe. God bless you all for being Elks and supporting the best fraternal organization in the world.

-Larry Bratt PER, Loyal Knight

Since the weather has warmed up, I've been going out for a walk in the mornings. My travels have taken me into some of the older neighborhoods in my area, and one of the bigger differences I've noticed, is the size of the front porch on the older houses compared to the newer houses. On the older houses, the porches are much bigger than in the newer houses. The bigger porches go back to a time when people would sit outside in warmer weather, and actually get to know their neighbors. The front porches on newer houses are very small compared to the ones on older houses and most people now spend time in their back yards, shielded from their neighbors. Other than occasionally seeing their neighbors while coming or going, a lot of people don't get to know the people in their neighborhoods.

Everyone should make an effort to get to know their neighbors. You may make some new friends, as well as make your area safer by knowing who actually belongs in your area, thereby making it easier to spot someone who shouldn't be there.

-Larry Schwindt PER, Lecturing Knight

... Summer is in full swing at the Lodge ... our Officers are off to defend their National Title for Ritual Competition, keep them in your thoughts and prayers as they strive to do their best on behalf of our Lodge ... they put in a lot of time and commitment to this competition, give up vacation time, many long hours of practice and repetition, listen to constructive criticism from their coaches ... it takes a LOT of effort and planning to pull this off. All to bring respect and admiration to our Lodge. Very selfless effort by our Ritual Team on the Lodge's behalf. Be sure to Thank them when you next see them ... As you may have noticed this is a combined July/August issue, so the calendar looks a little different, several more meals posted, etc. Be sure to stop in to the Club for lunch, or an afternoon cold one, plenty of friends and good conversation to be had ... Father's Day brunch was well attended and a lot of fun, a big Thanks to Carrie and crew for the kitchen expertise, to the Larry's, Rich Todd and Connie Moore for keeping the coffee coming, taking orders and more. Quite the joint effort on their behalf, and it benefits the Ritual team, helps defray their expenses as they head to National ... Be sure to attend the monthly dinners at the Lodge, as this is what underwrites our operation. Bring a friend or two, and have them fill out an application, we could use a few dozen new members ... Flag Day ceremony was well done, everyone was appreciative of the efforts ... Veterans Celebration at the VA Hospital was a good time despite the heat, big Thanks to Wade Graft and all the others who volunteered and helped make that a success ... Girl Scout Flag ceremony was held at the State Capitol on June 14th, P.E.R. Wirth lead the effort with many Girl Scouts recognized for their Silver, Gold, and Bronze awards. A nice reception was held for them in a nearby church. Please thank P.E.R. Wirth for his continued efforts to spearhead this special event, and for incorporating the Elks into their celebration ... Elks Midget Football is just around the corner, talk to Scott Schrage for more information and ways to help ... Remember the Does Drove #4 and their fundraising efforts to host the Does National Convention next year, see Kelli or Marge for ways to help ... finally, be safe this 4th and have a fun summer, your next Elk O Gram will be out 1st of September ... remember, Elks Care, Elks Share ...

Forever Angels Carnival A Hit!

On Sunday, May 31st, the 2015 Forever Angels Carnival was held in the parking lot of Gold's Gym at 18th and Pine Lake Rd.. President Jaime Sanks couldn't have asked for a better day. Many volunteers were present to assist in conducting various games, such as dunk tank, ring toss, face painting, shuffle bowl, fishing, ball bounce, putt-putt golf, tip a troll, balloons, pick a lollipop, cake walk, super heroes, corvettes, and fire safety. A concession stand provided hot dogs, cotton candy and water.

Mrs. Nebraska 2015, Erika Shelton was present representing Pediatric Cancer Action Network, and provided crowns for all the kids. Miss Nebraska Junior, Tabatha Staehr was also in attendance running the putt-putt golf game. In addition, a silent auction of various gifts and prizes was held throughout the afternoon. Lincoln Lodge No. 80 is a sponsor that assists financially in support of this great cause.

The fundraiser helps in providing assistance to families whose child is facing life-threatening illnesses or disabilities. Most of all, Jaime wants Forever Angels to be as the name implies: Angels who will be there for area families in need – forever. Elks in attendance were Larry Bratt PER, Larry Schwindt PER, Scott Schrage and wife Jodi and Stephen Wirth PER.

Birthday Celebration at the Mother's Day Breakfast

On Sunday, May 10th, we celebrated the birthday of Albert Francke (72 years) at the Ritual Team's Mother's Day Breakfast fund raiser. Our Treasurer, Wauneta Peterson, always sees to it that a large group of her family members comes to this event to celebrate Mother's Day and Albert's birthday. They have been attending since 2009!

Wauneta provided birthday cake, ice cream and strawberries while everyone enjoyed passing around Mother's Day and Birthday cards and gifts. Even members of the Ritual Team and Coaches sang "Happy Birthday" while Wauneta provided the melodies on the organ.

Albert is a John Deere man and Leonard (Leo) is a collector who restores Case/IH tractors. Wauneta and Opal are sisters. Arthur and Opal are the parents of Leonard who is married to Sherry and together have 3 sons. Mavis is Albert's significant other. All of us at Lincoln Lodge No. 80 thank you for supporting our fund raising event for the Ritual Team's march to Indianapolis, Indiana.

Charitable Fund News

On Thursday, May 28th the Directors of Lincoln Elks 80 Charitable Fund honored scholarship winners and their families with a "burger bash." In addition, scholarship donors and Lodge Officers were invited because the donors and the Paulding Smith Fund administered by the Lodge contribute greatly to the success of the Charitable Fund.

There were almost 40 scholarship winners and family members in attendance and they enjoyed burgers fresh off Scott Jurgens's grill, along with fries, baked beans, salad, dessert and a drink. All this served up by members of the Charitable Fund Board of Directors. Altogether about 65 Elks and their friends enjoyed the evening which closed with our State Americanism essay winner, Olivia Jenkins reciting her winning essay, "What the Flag means to Me," followed by EmCee Larry Bratt's introduction of honored guests and a short history of Elks Lodge #80 and our contributions to the Youth, Veterans and communities in which we have jurisdiction.

All of this is due to the generosity of PER Wes Durst who underwrote the entire cost. Thanks to Wes from all who participated.

Lincoln Elks 80 Charitable Fund administers all scholarships given by both the Fund and the Lodge. Each year over $40,000 is awarded in scholarships to primarily High School Seniors.
