Planning the new year means taking a look back.

Exalted Ruler
Lodge No. 80
2020-2021
Harry Montag

This is the time of year that many people look for change. Days are getting longer and, in much of the country, warmer. Signs of spring are beginning to show. It may be the end of an Elks year, but it is also the beginning of a new one.

If you are retiring from your leadership role, continuing on in a new one, or beginning your year as the leader, no matter what you are doing, you are the leadership of the organization and your Lodge. Year end seems like a time of celebration, but we also need to continue to move forward. Lodge Secretaries need to prepare the year-end reports. Budgets for the upcoming year should be solidified and any last-minute changes should be made, if need be.

This is also the time to evaluate your Lodge and review what was successful. Continue those programs and work them. But also look to see what didn't work. Don't over analyze it, but rather consider what it was that didn't work. Ask yourself if it is worth having it again or scratching it and try something new. Begin now to update your Lodge's calendar and prepare for the future events. If you are prepared, you are Creating Momentum ahead of time. Be sure also to review your Lodge bylaws. Is there anything that needs attention? At the same time, review your house rules and make sure they are up to date and ready for the next year. It is vitally important to have these rules and bylaws in effect to protect your Lodge from a business perspective to clearly define how the Lodge will handle any and all negative situations that may arise.

Lastly, celebrate St. Patrick's Day. Use this celebration as a chance to meet and greet your new officers.

Usually this is the time of year where the ER can finally "retire" from writing an article or two from this publication. Well, the news (you can decide) is a toss-up. I get to pen thoughts for a while longer.

First of all, I would like to Thank Wauneta Peterson for being our treasurer for the past several long years. If you did not realize it, the job of a treasurer is a demanding task. Especially this year. Thank you for contributing so much of your time, energy, and efforts to it. Wauneta you are very much appreciated. Again, Thank You!

As I tried to reflect on just what happened to all of us last year, I recalled a story about an elusive D-day mystery that persists to this day (much like my perception of last year). Despite the millions of words written about the allied invasion of Normandy on June 6, 1944: What did General Dwight D. Eisenhower say when he gave the final order to launch the attack? No one can quite recall.

It is puzzling that one of the most important decisions of the 20th century did not bequeath to posterity a memorable quote to mark the occasion. As someone stated "The stakes of the invasion merited verbal splendor, if not grandiloquence."

Well, what really mattered is that the Allies won...and that we survived the serious strains on all of us in the last year. We survived. We are winning. We did lose a few and tears were shed. I was encouraged to see a number of you at our Valentine's Dinner. It was great to see some familiar faces and smiles of people whom I haven't seen for a while.

Finally, I would like to thank the current group of officers, trustees, and of course you our members for hanging in there with us. President Kennedy once stated that "We must find time to stop and thank the people who make a difference in our lives." You my friend have done so. Thank each and every one of you.

If you were wondering what Eisenhower said before the invasion you will have to wait for a while. There is no memorable quote, in other words, because of Eisenhower's good old-fashioned Kansas modesty. He did not have the kind of ego that spawns lofty sentiments for the press or posterity. He simply got the job done.

Thank you and we will be seeing you around the lodge.

Secretary's Corner

There's been quite a bit of snow under the tires since I made my statement last month about Spring coming soon! The best thing about March is that Spring actually will come this month, on the 20th, and boy won't we be happy to leave this winter behind! We've had in the neighborhood of 50" of snow and record low temperatures – in fact, as I write this, the overnight low is forecast to be -27°F! We also welcome back Daylight Savings Time on Sunday, March 14, so don't forget to "spring" your manually-set time pieces ahead!

I'd like to make a shout out to Wauneta Peterson. She has served the lodge well for, I believe, seven years as Treasurer. That is a tough job, and requires dedication, which Wauneta has cheerfully given. Wauneta, you have served well; I hope you will now enjoy the lodge without the burden, and I do hope we can continue to look forward to your performances on the organ!

Welcome new members Reggie Buckmaster, Helen Burks, and Bill Sack! They will make great additions to our lodge. So happy to have you all!

Remember – the due date for the year's dues is April 1, 2021. On April 2, if left unpaid, you are considered delinquent and not a member in good standing. You must be a member in good standing to enjoy the benefits of Lodge membership! Also, remember all the good things our Lodge does – and will hopefully be able to do again this year. Your dues and participation help to fund all the good work we do for the children and veterans in our community.

As always, please don't hesitate to contact me if you have questions or need assistance with all things Elk.

Laurie Montag / lodge80secy@yahoo.com / 402.202.6673 please leave a voicemail.

Knight's Tales

Just what is this thing called justice? Is it viable? Is it honorable? Or is it something that regularly fails any form of scrutiny?

Justice, by definition, means fairness, impartiality, evenhandedness, or righteousness. But how do these virtues apply to the everyday, person on the street? You know... what does it mean to parents, construction workers, teachers, retirees, veterans, and more?

Being a part of a prestigious organization like the Elks heralds those aforementioned virtues as aspirations to attain versus accepting mediocrity for community involvement. You are what you appear to be, until doubt is removed after a violation by-laws and constitution, or failure of your obligation shines a light on the real you. Keeping to the just standards of the Elks is akin to those daring days of chivalry from Medieval times, when Knights were the epitome of valor and glory for the Lord through faithful service to their liege lord. They swore an oath to serve and defend their king's interest, much like we Elks of today made our solemn vows during our Initiation. The mystery and seeming secret affairs of being an Elk are more to be taken as a devotion to civic duty than any vain enterprise from our respective egos.

An Elk, be they a woman or a man, bares the responsibility of God's grace and mercy for all of our fellow humankind. When we put the needs of others ahead of our own, the Lord is able to empower us to get things done that matter here in Lincoln, Lancaster County, and the rest of Nebraska. Let's continue being just to our community by following up on our Elks' laws and obligations before the Lord.

-Rev. Dr. William Jackson, Loyal Knight

Well fellow Elks, now our children can talk about the Winter of 2021. It was so cold, and then there we go...

I remember the stories of my father and his friends about bad winters of the past, tunneling to the barn to feed the cattle, opening the front door and finding a wall of white snow. I remember digging out neighbor after neighbor on the farm. My Dad had a tractor with a front end blade, and he pushed out a lot of people's drives. I miss my father a lot, he has been gone 41 years. If he had known about the Elks, he would have joined. Helping people was sort of his mission in life also.

Speaking of Missions in Life, our ability to help has been shut down a lot by the Virus. We as Elks need to look around for new ways to help our fellow man & woman and just offer a hand up once in a while, every little bit helps.

Well I will sign off now, I have to carry the dog to her special spot in the yard or her feet get cold...hopefully I am not spoiling her (too much!). Members, go to the Lodge for lunch or a drink, support is everything.

-Dick Wolf, Leading Knight

I'm sitting here on President's Day trying to stay warm in -5 degree temps. I think I figured out why all those old Presidents had long hair and wore hats. It's simple... 'cuz it was damn cold! Sometimes my small brain has strange thoughts!

This being the March EOG, we can hope when spring gets here, March 20, maybe it will warm up. The cold weather didn't deter the crowd for the Valentine dinner. Things went very well for all prepping and serving. The Scouts we had help with the dinner, in my opinion, were the best workers we've ever had help. Kudos to them and their parents.

My wish kind of came true with the dinner as I got to see and talk to members I haven't seen for months. With the pandemic winding down some, hopefully we will see more members coming to the Lodge for lunch, a drink, or just to visit. Everyone stay warm!

Be Safe <-----> Be Good
...and most of all...
Stay Healthy!

-Larry Jurgens, Lecturing Knight

... Spring is right around the corner, can't come soon enough. Rough February. I trust everyone made it through OK, but there were sure some tough days to endure! ... Valentine's Day dinner was quite the success, good to see so many people filling the Lodge ... Karaoke was a lot of fun, good to see some familiar faces back at the microphones, singing and having fun. Getting people back into our Lodge and enjoying each other is the goal this spring, now that things are easing up a bit ... St. Patty's Day dinner upcoming, it will be a take-out only, on Tuesday, March 16th, 4:30 - 7 pm. Call in your order for Corned Beef and Cabbage, potatoes and all the fixin's, swing past the Lodge and we'll run it out to your car. Please make your reservations so we know how much to prepare! ... Fish Fry is coming right up as well, watch the EOG for more info on that ... now is a good time to get involved in your Lodge, join a committee, help with a project, it's a good way to get out of the house and do something useful ... while you're at it, come on down to the Pub for lunch on Thursday, Friday, and Saturdays, enjoy the camaraderie with your fellow Elks and Does, meet new friends, and have a nice time. Now more than ever we need to patronize our Pub and be a part of our Lodge. Bring a friend, hand them an application for membership. We always need more members, and many hands make light work ... Our new slate of Officers were elected in February and will be installed this month. Most people retained their positions from last year, with one exception, Jody Schrage is the new Treasurer. She has a lot of experience and will quickly be up to speed in the daily finances of our Lodge. A huge Thank You to Wauneta Peterson for her many years of service as Treasurer. Managing a system as complex as ours is no easy feat ... Rumor has it that Diane Dannelly is engaged, and looking forward to a July wedding. Congratulations to her and her fiancé! We hope to see you both at the Lodge frequently ... remember Burger Madness on Tuesday March 9th. Eat in or take out, good food for a good cause, call ahead the day of so we can prepare for it ... See you at the Lodge ...

Does Dispatch

March is upon us and that means Saint Patrick's Day and Spring are close at hand!

We had a nice Founder's Day celebration with some excellent dishes to eat at the February meeting. Wauneta Peterson gave us some little "history fun facts" as she is well experienced with her 50+ years of dedicated membership! We are coming up with a lot of good ideas on changes to make us fit in with the modern times as we see a need for updating to bring in new members.

We would like to see more members at our meetings to get more ideas and thoughts on many outdated agendas. Please join us at the March meeting on Wednesday, March 10th at 5:30, we will be meeting in the card room. We will be looking at choir robes as an alternative to white dresses! This makes the attire gender neutral!

The Trustees are currently working on several projects for our Lodge. We are reviewing bids for upgrades to the building's insurances and alarm systems.

The Trustees completed work on the budget and passed it out to the members for review.

It will be voted on at the first meeting in March (the 3rd)

Karaoke at the Lodge

Come get your song on!
Karaoke, Friday March 19th, starting at 6 pm.

Bring munchies to share, bring your friends, we can have a good time and socially distance too!

Hides...Hides...Hides...

Deer Hide Program was a great success this year, thanks to everyone's efforts. We collected 52 hides, and were able to salt and store them at P.E.R. Tom Roper's acreage. E.R. Harry and I will be transporting them to central Nebraska in the coming weeks to join in with the other hides collected from our State...all to be taken to a tannery and eventually find their way to a glove factory, where they are made into gloves and distributed to wheelchair bound Veterans. The remaining leather is made into craft kits and provided to Veterans for recreational and occupational therapy. Thanks one and all for participating in this year's program!

SOCIAL GET TOGETHER

There are a few of us that have started having a lunch/social / ”games and whatever” to support the Lodge! We meet on the 3rd Thursday of the month at 1pm, and stay ‘til 4 or 5, but you can come and go at any time.

We would enjoy your company, so come on down!

Valentine’s Day Treats

Elks Lodge #80, represented by the Pedersen family, delivered 120 Valentine bags to Cedars North Ridge and F street WE CAN DO THIS. Troy contacted Amanda Nielsen, and was approved to make and deliver Valentines as we have done in the past. The kids at both facilities are often overlooked on holidays like this.

Larry and Vicki Jurgens and Troy and Heather Pedersen donated all the materials, and Lars and Louisa Pedersen helped assemble the bags and write the valentines. It was a wonderful activity, and it helped put the ELKS name out in the Lincoln community.

Delinquent Members

The following individual’s membership will be dropped February 28, 2021, unless payment of their 2020-2021 dues are made prior to that.
