11th Hour Toast

You have heard the tolling of 11 strokes.

This is to remind us that with Elks, the hour of 11 has a tender significance.

Wherever Elks may roam, whatever their lot in life may be, when this hour falls upon the dial of night, the great heart of Elkdom swells and throbs.

It is the golden hour of recollection, the homecoming of those who wander, the mystic roll call of those who will come no more.

Living or dead, Elks are never forgotten, never forsaken.

*Morning and noon may pass them by, the light of day sink heedlessly in the West, but ere the shadows of midnight shall fall, the chimes of memory will be pealing forth the friendly message,
"To our absent members."*

The Original Jolly Corks Toast

Now is the hour when Elksdom's tower is darkened by the shroud of night,
And father time on his silver chime
Tolls off each moment's flight.
In Cloistered halls each Elk recalls
His Brothers where'er they be,
And traces their faces to well-known places
In the annals of memory.
Whether they stand on a foreign land
Or lie in an earthen bed,
Whether they be on the boundless sea
With the breakers of death ahead.
Whate'er their plight on this eerie night
Whate'er their fate may be,
Where ever they are be it near or far
They are thinking of you and me.
So drink from the fountain of fellowship
To the Brother who clasped your hand,
And wrote your worth in the rock of earth
And your faults upon the sand.
TO OUR ABSENT BROTHERS

A Toast to our Veterans (please have glass in hand)

On the 11th month, the 11th hour of the 11th day The Elks honor our Veterans who have been in harm's way

They fought many battles in both World Wars In the air, on the seas and defending the shores

In Korea, Vietnam and the Middle East too They did it for me and they did it for you

They fought for our freedom, They fought for our pride Many returned but some of them died

They answered the call and don't boast or brag, All they ask in return is that we salute our flag

They don their uniforms and march in parades To remind us all when memory fades

Some gave their lives and for that we are sad But they gave us our freedom and for that we are glad

So please raise your glasses for this special toast,
To our American Veterans whom we owe the most

To our Veterans
